

Week's Social Happenings in Towns of State

BINGHAM.

Miss Rose Stephens is spending the week in camp, the guest of her brother, Tom Stephens and family.

About two dozen members of the Upper Bingham L. O. O. F. hired horses and attended the celebration at the lower hall Friday evening. The official exercises over cards and music became the order. Miss Bertha and Miss June Ellis of Salt Lake rendered several vocal selections which were well received. The lucky whist players were Mrs. Christensen and James Richards. A sumptuous spread closed the evening's entertainment.

The ward meeting house was the scene of a gay gathering Friday evening, when the friends of Mr. John Salt gathered to tender him a farewell. Music and dancing sped the hours and songs and speeches closed the entertainment. Mr. Salt leaves soon for Ogden, where he will make his future home.

Mrs. Ellis Baker, accompanied by her sister, returned Saturday from a visit with relatives in Lehi.

Mrs. Hair of Salt Lake, mother of N. C. Hair, was out Saturday and was one of the guests at the anniversary dinner given at the home of her son, Saturday evening.

The young folks sprung a surprise party on Soren Atherly Sunday evening. Games were played and an enjoyable evening was spent.

Thursday afternoon the Lady Macabees initiated several new members, and after the ceremonies, enjoyed a dainty lunch had been previously prepared by the members. About fourteen were present and did justice to the affair.

Mrs. Bert Vincent returned Tuesday after a brief visit with friends in Murray and with her parents in Sandy.

Dell Fenkel was host at a stag party Saturday evening. Later in the evening the wives of the merry revelers made them a surprise visit, the rooms were cleared and a jolly time was had tripping the light fantastic until a late hour.

The social club did not hold its regular meeting at the M. E. church Monday evening, as was announced, due to other social matters claiming the attention of some of its members. The date fixed for the next session will be Tuesday, May 7, at the M. E. church.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Ball of the Highland Boy were pleasantly surprised Monday evening by a number of their neighbors and friends. Music, dancing and songs were the order of the evening and an excellent lunch was served during the course of which Mrs. Ball was presented with a beautiful silver tea set, the presentation speech being made by Emil Lundquist.

Mr. Ball was presented with a handsome gold watch. Mr. McMaisters officiated as the speech maker. Mr. Ball, for a number of years, has been mine foreman at the Highland Boy, and has always been a conscientious and popular master. The occasion of the surprise was Mr. Ball's departure for Globe, Ariz., to accept a much more remunerative position. Mrs. Ball will visit her home in Canada before joining her husband at Globe.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Adams have moved to Salt Lake City for permanent residence.

Mrs. J. H. Goodwin spent the latter part of the week in Ogden and Salt Lake City. A most delightful arranged surprise party was given at the home of E. D.

Bush Friday evening, it being Mr. Bush's 24th birthday anniversary. Cards was the feature of the evening. Mrs. Ray Miller and James Judd carried off the first prizes, while congratulations fell to M. A. Gilmore and Mr. Ray Miller.

The Woman's Unity club will meet Monday evening, May 6, at the home of their president, Mrs. A. J. Minnette, when Joaquin Miller will be under discussion. The club will bring the year's work to a close May 14 by an appropriate program for Decoration day. The club will meet with Mrs. E. E. Dudley, when they will adjourn until September.

This is the week for the Whist club, and Mrs. V. E. Jones is hostess at the home of Mrs. A. W. Forman, Friday evening. Among out of town guests for the evening will be Mrs. Worthington Clark, Mrs. David Teacher and Mrs. Jones of Salt Lake.

This is the week for the children of the Lower Bingham school, accompanied by their teachers, enjoyed a May walk in the mountains Wednesday, laden with a choice lunch to appease their appetites. Nothing was lacking to make the day a pleasant one.

In honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Hair entertained Saturday evening at their home. The highland boys and girls were one of the most elaborate of the week's happenings. Many costly and beautiful presents in silver and china were presented to the hosts of the evening. The time was most delightfully spent in playing numerous games, while musical selections were rendered throughout the evening. A sumptuous banquet was served in the dining room, covers being laid for twenty, and music and a sumptuous dinner was served.
